Jurist Finds Tycoon Guilty In U.S. Court

Goldfine Enters Innocent Plea To House Contempt

BOSTON (AP) — Industrialist Bernard Goldfine was convicted in federal court today of criminal contempt for failure to comply with the court's order to produce records of one of his textile mills in a tax probe.

About the same time Judge Charles E. Wyzanski Jr. was filing his decision in Boston, the 67-year-old Goldfine was pleading innocent in Washington to a contempt of Congress indictment.

Goldfine's secretary, Miss Mildred Paperman, also was found guilty of criminal contempt in regard to the Strathmore Mills of Boston and the Northfield Mills of Northfield, Vt., two other Goldfine enterprises.

The Goldfine conviction was on books of the Lebanon Mills of Lebanon, N.H.

Goldfine was found innocent on complaints regarding the records of the Lebandale Mills of Lebanon, N.H. and George Mabbett & Sons Co., of Plymouth, Mass.

In Washington, Goldfine is accused of flouting Congress by refusing to tell House investigators enough about his financial dealings.

In the Washington hearing it was brought out Goldfine had made gifts to former president Lyndon Johnson, and other public officials. Adams denied there was any wrongdoing in the matter. He subsequently resigned his White House post.

Goldfine stepped forward briskly to do a day when his name was called in District Court in the nation's capital. He pleaded "not guilty" in a firm voice. Judge John J. Sirica set his trial for March 16.

Goldfine had little to say to reporters and was unaware at the time of the court action in Boston.

In the Boston decision, Judge Wyzanski said he will impose sentence Monday.

Mikoyan's Visit Seen As Hopeful

PARIS (AP) — European NATO diplomats today viewed Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan's coming trip to America as a political gesture connected with the West Berlin crisis and a possible East-West summit meeting.

They regarded the Soviet maneuver with mixed feelings of hope that it might ease tension, and fear that their governments would be bypassed by the two world giants, the United States and the Soviet Union.

Navy Slash For Missiles To Cost Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Costs and weapons advances have triggered a sweeping Navy cutback in shore establishments and spelled the end to a major missile program.

To keep pace with cutbacks in its operating forces, the Navy said Thursday night, 30 ground bases in 17 states will be closed, reduced or merged.

The announcement spoke of rising prices and higher labor costs.

About 9,000 civilian jobs will be abolished over the next several years.

Ganceled after an outlay of $78 million dollars was the Regulus II guided missile program. The air-breathing missile can soar more than 1,000 miles at twice the speed of sound. It flew in about 40 successful tests.

The Navy figured that by jettisoning Regulus II now, it could save more than 100 million dollars for other projects. It said ballistic missiles — shot more like bullets — have better potential than the air-breathers guided like piloted planes.

The Navy is now developing the Polaris 1,500-mile range ballistic missile. Like the Regulus, the Polaris could be fired with a nuclear warhead from submarines.

North Koreans Want UN Remove Missiles

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The North Korean Communists today demanded that the U.N. Command immediately withdraw the atomic-capable Matador guided missile and all other up-to-date weapons from South Korea which elected Pope John XXIII to succeed Pius XII.

The U.N. Command immediately rejected the Red demands made at a meeting of the Military Armistice Commission.

The U.N. Command has been unable to make progress on the segregation issue, which he became a cardinal.

Young Wife Takes Care Of 14, Plans Merry Yule

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP) — They're going to have Christmas at the Norman Smith House, but it won't be easy.

"It happened too near Christmas to do anything much," Mrs. Smith said. "but we're goin' to have a tree and things."

What happened was that Mrs. Smith's mother Mrs. Alberta Williams died Nov. 8. While the mother was on her deathbed, Mrs. Smith vowed to keep the 14 young Williams children together.

Mrs. Smith took charge of her brothers and sisters, ranging in age from 2 months to 13 years. She has four youngsters of her own, aged 2 months to 4 years.

So now Mrs. Smith is mothering 18 little ones. And she herself is only 22.

Mrs. Smith—her given name is Marie—is a tall, shapely girl with wide-set brown eyes and hair drawn back in a pony tail. To a reporter who visited her, she looked like a high school senior.

How does she manage? "I get up at 4:30," she said. "Have to get a brother off on his paper route. Then I get breakfast ready. One mornin' it's oatmeal, one mornin' pancakes, one mornin' grits and eggs."

Mrs. Smith, who used to live in Atlanta, whips up biscuits for breakfast and corn bread for the evening meal.

"Al supper I feed 'em in shifts," she said. "First the babies, then the school kids, then the grownups. We can eat in Thursday when the right landing gear collapsed during a landing. The three pilots aboard were not injured.

Atlas Visible In South Sky

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—America's mighty Atlas satellite should be a brilliant sight in the Southern sky after sunset Friday, a spokesman for the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory said.

The huge four-ton moonlet probably will have a life of only a few weeks, the scientist estimated.

Dr. John White, Smithsonian information officer, said very rough information indicated the moon should be visible to the naked eye over Southern parts of the United States Friday night.

"The rent for the two flats is $120 a month," said Herman Smith, 32, who makes $60 a week as a gasoline station attendant. "It takes $30 to $75 a week for groceries."

The bulk of the double family's income is $44 a month for aid to dependent children. It goes to the widower, Alonzo Williams, who lives with the Smiths. He isn't working because of a chronic stomach ailment.

Mrs. Smith, who shows a fondness for such newfangled styles as torcuador pants while displaying the dauntless spirit of pioneer womenfolk, is determined to keep all the kids together.

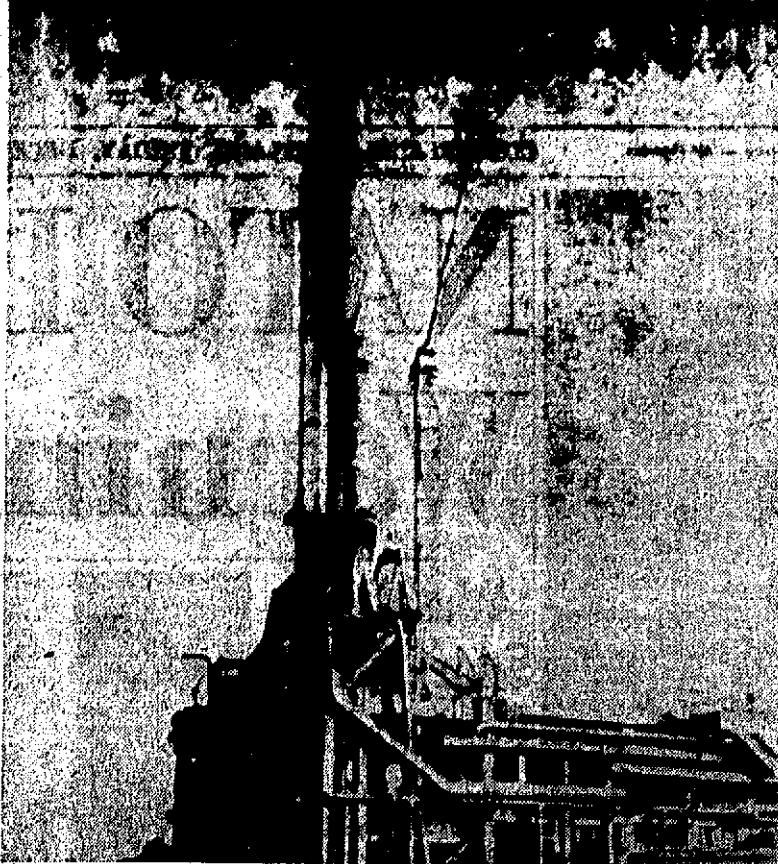

"I got love for my brothers and sisters and I can't see 'em livin' anywhere else," she said.

Atlas Is First U. S. ICBM And Set Mark November 28

By The Associated Press

What is an Atlas?

It's an 85-foot, 100-ton package of power. Yet its shell is said to be so delicate you can probably drive a hammer into it with one heavy blow.

It is the first U.S. intercontinental ballistic missile.

On the night of Nov. 28, it blasted off from one of its gigantic launching pads at Cape Canaveral, Fla., and flew 6,325 miles.

It carries three engines in its mammoth cigar-like shape. Two booster engines develop over 130,000 pounds of thrust each. In between is a sustainer engine that probably has the thrust of some 100,000 pounds.

The Atlas' launching pad alone is some indication of its size. The Atlas stands on a concrete pedestal well over two stories high.

Through the heart of this pedestal is a huge funnel—small end toward the engine of the missile. When the Atlas blasts off, the enormous flames pour through this horn of plenty, cooled by some 30,000 gallons of water a minute pumped into the fire.

Even then the engine火 has the force to extend well out along the 100-yard concrete apron.

When the Atlas has fought its way off the ground and gradually picks up speed you can see the separate tongues of flame from each of its booster rockets.

Missile Stocks Up

NEW YORK (AP)—General Dynamics, builder of the giant Atlas satellite, and other missile-related stocks rose today. The stock market advanced irregularly in active early trading.

Atlas' Feat

This was to see if the Atlas would fly as faithfully as it did two weeks ago, when it traveled a prescribed 6,325-mile course over the Atlantic.

Of Thursday night's test, the Pentagon said: "Most successful."

But it did much more, as the Pentagon pointed out in a statement: "The entire vehicle achieved an orbit. As such, it is the largest satellite that has been put into orbit by the United States.

More importantly, this marks the first time that a high accuracy missile guidance system has been used to steer such a vehicle into its orbital trajectory."

Thus, in a matter of minutes, the United States proved once more that it has a dependable ICBM and also took the wind out of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's taunts about "lemon-size" U.S. satellites.

There was a novel twist to the launching which sent the Atlas soaring at 17,000 miles an hour. In its nose cone was a unique communications system—and there was speculation that its tape recordings included the voice of Eisenhower.

Red China Set To Slow Down Commune System

By NATE POLOWETZKY

TOKYO (AP)—Red China's drive to extend the commune system to cities will be pushed at a much slower pace than the program which has turned the countryside into huge labor camps.

This was made plain in a 15,000 word resolution of the Chinese Communist Party Central Committee broadcast Thursday night, which called for applying the program to the cities.

But the resolution made it clear that the revolutionary program, which it claimed already has in cities Socialist ownership by swept up 89 per cent of the whole people is already the main form of organization.

Peasants, would go on. Also, "bourgeois ideology is still fairly prevalent among many of the capitalists and intellectuals."

Consequently, "it said, "we should continue to make experiments, and generally speaking, should not be in a hurry to set trouble over the communes."

The document indicated there were misgivings in the hierarchy between the adherents of a "go-fast" and a "take it easy" policy, with the latter apparently in the ascendancy, for the present.

But the resolution praised the House of Commons Thursday for plan itself as "a new social or still had not received any answer from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev."

The resolution said there were shrewd on the agenda of a pro-peace conference.

Santa Letter
Author To Be
70 Next Year.

Mrs. O'Hanlon Wrote
"Is There" Note; Has Taught For 43 Years

By H. D. QUIGG
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Sixty-one years ago Virginia O'Hanlon wrote one of the world's most famous letters. In it she asked the question—is there a Santa Claus?

"I am ready to retire," said the gentle, blue-eyed lady today. She spoke with only the slightest quaver, in sure, cultured cadences.

"Next July, I will be 70 years old, and I've been teaching in the New York public schools roughly 43 years. I intend to finish out the spring term. Retirement is mandatory at 70."

One short half-term as a junior principal and then retirement in a quiet apartment in Manhattan, the island that has always been home for Mrs. Laura Virginia O'Hanlon Douglas. She was born in Manhattan July 20, 1889, not far from the spot where Clement Clarke Moore wrote "the verse that begins "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

Her father, Dr. Philip F. O'Hanlon, a physician and surgeon, later moved his family uptown into a four-story brick house with brownstone trimming at the front. Her room had a fireplace where she always hung a stocking on Christmas Eve. The tree was in the parlor downstairs.

"One of my earliest memories is of the sound of the bells on the sleighs outside—a lovely sound in winter—I'm sorry, children don't hear them now," she said. "And I still have the old-fashioned ornaments we used on our Christmas tree. They are used to help decorate the tree of my seven grandchildren every year."

One day, when Virginia O'Hanlon was eight, she came home from Public School #3 with word that some of her little friends were saying there is no Santa Claus. She put it squarely up to her father.

"My dear father was always a great pal of mine. I felt he was being equivocal in the way he was answering—he wasn't saying yes with conviction, and he wasn't saying no. I told him I was going to ask our family newspaper, the Sun. Papa was delighted—it was an out for him."

Virginia got a sheet of the family's best heavy writing paper. She went to her father's second office, took a stub pen, and wrote a letter starting "dear editor" and ending: "Please tell me the truth, is there a Santa Claus?"

The answer, an editorial written by Francis B. Church in the Sun, has been reproduced all over the world and is held to be the most famous editorial article ever written.

"My family used to write 'he Sun about such things as pronunciation of words,'" she said, "and when I wrote my letter I never expected there'd be anything but a yes or no answer."

"Our first word of the editorial came when a lovely gentleman, Mr. Matthews, an officer of the Actor's Fund, met my father and said: 'Did you see today's answer to Virginia's letter?'"

The famous answer assured Virginia, that there is indeed a Santa Claus—"he exists as certainly as love and generosity and devotion exist... thank God, he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Virginia, nay, ten times ten thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood."

Mrs. Douglas smiled when asked if she ever met the author. "No, we never knew him. Although he was a neighbor of ours in the summer. You see, it wasn't known until he died that he wrote it. Everybody thought Mr. Dana, the editor, wrote it."

Party Planned At Infirmary

Patients at the Allegany County Infirmary will have a Christmas party tomorrow afternoon. Arrangements for the program are being made by Raymond "Ike" Law, sick committee chairman of Cumberland Council 586, Knights of Columbus. A number of Christmas selections will be sung by the Casey Chorus comprised of members of the Knights of Columbus Council here.

Rev. Arthur Eastress, assistant pastor at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, will direct the chorus. Mr. Law said students of a local dance studio will also entertain the patients.

A highlight of the program, which will begin at 2 p.m., will be the crowning of Mrs. Mary Ellen "Molly" Trimble, the oldest woman patient at the infirmary, as queen of the afternoon affair. She formerly lived at Frostburg.

She will be celebrating her 93rd birthday on January 7 having been born in 1866. The patients will be presented a treat by Mr. Law during the program.

Planning Aid Advances For Salisbury

State And Local Funds To Match Help Provided By U. S.

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Maryland State Planning Commission said today it had received $12,500 in federal urban planning assistance funds to help Salisbury prepare a master plan for the Eastern Shore city.

The federal funds will be matched by local and State contributions to carry on an 18-month planning project.

J. Alvin Pasarew, director of the State Planning Commission, said the money had been received from the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency.

The project will be aimed at laying out a plan for apportioning land in suitable locations and amounts for various uses, such as industry, residences, and commerce, and to set up a suitable traffic network.

The project also calls for preparation of subdivision regulations governing housing developments.

Pasarew said Salisbury has grown rapidly in recent years and there is a need for an overall community plan relating to building and traffic.

It was explained that city officials approached the State Planning Commission a year ago about the possibility of federal assistance in preparing such a plan.

Salisbury is the second Maryland city to receive a federal grant under the urban planning assistance section of the 1954 Housing Act. Rockville, Montgomery County, started a planning study under a $12,610 grant awarded last June.

The Yukon, about 2,400 miles long, is the largest river in Alaska.

Mother Rescues Five Children From Blaze

BALTIMORE (AP)—Mrs. Marie Atkinson rescued five of her 10 children from a burning bedroom yesterday when she went upstairs to check them during an afternoon nap. The other five children were at school.

The mother said she could not see the children and reached them only by hearing their cries and groping through the dense smoke.

Rescued were Calvin, 3; Louis, 2; Brenda, and Linda, 1-year-old twins, and a month-old boy whom the mother said had no name.

Mrs. Atkinson said flames burst from the ceiling of the third-floor room. Firemen said the lower floors received smoke and water damage.

The older Atkinson children include Larry, 11; Ronnie Jr., 9; Allan, 8; Phillip, 7, and Joann, 6. Last night Mrs. Atkinson and her 10 children moved into the two-room apartment of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chambers. The Chambers have five children of their own.

Mrs. Atkinson said her husband, Bonnie, had to sleep elsewhere because the apartment was so crowded.

Two Area Men Enlist In Navy

The local Navy recruiting station has enlisted two area men.

They are Kenneth Lee Engle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engle, RD 3, Bedford; and Charles Adam Simmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Simmons, RD 4, Keyser.

Both men have been assigned to the Great Lakes Training Center near Chicago for recruit training. Engle attended Bedford High School and has a brother, Floyd, who is a gunner's mate.

Last night Mrs. Atkinson and her 10 children moved into the two-room apartment of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chambers. The Chambers have five children of their own.

CHRISTMAS POKERS—Connie Cunningham, 11, was a happy lad after the Southern Railway System presented him with six pigs from the Trappist Monastery near Bardstown, Ky. With Connie are John F. Munford, Southern Railway superintendent, and Brother Coleman of the monastery. Two of Connie's charges are also shown. The gift was made after a railroad train eliminated Connie's earlier herd.

Sanity Test In State Termed "Unrealistic"

BALTIMORE (AP) — The test used by Maryland and most other states to determine whether a criminal case defendant is legally sane is "vastly unworkable, quite unrealistic and no safeguard to society," a federal appeals judge said last night.

Judge John Biggs Jr. of the Third Circuit Court of Appeals told a panel audience "mental institutions are full" of people who could be judged sane if accused of a crime in these states.

Maryland law provides that a man is legally sane if he knows the difference between right and wrong and if he understands that he may be punished if he does what is wrong.

Judge Biggs took part in a symposium on a legislative committee's recommendations for changing this law.

A major change would relieve a man of responsibility for a crime if mental disease or deficiency made him unable to understand and appreciate "the criminality of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of law."

This would be distinct from the state's law covering defective delinquents. These are persons who, because of mental deficiency or emotional unbalance, cannot resist a tendency toward crime.

After being classified as defective delinquents by the courts on recommendation by a special staff, they are confined to the Patuxent Institution—the state's special facility for them—for as long as they require treatment.

Dr. Manfred S. Guttman, medical consultant to the Supreme Bench of Baltimore, headed the committee of doctors, lawyers and laymen who came up with the recommended changes. The committee was named by the Legislative Council, between-session screening arm of the General Assembly.

Guttman last night suggested a need for education of judges, as well as of the public, about modern psychiatric thought. He said he frequently had been unable, while testifying as a psychiatric authority in criminal cases, to bring out important evidence because he was not asked pertinent questions.

Once, he said, a judge interrupted his testimony with, "Doctor, we're busy people. We're not here to listen to a lecture."

Guttman cited another case in which a youth he considered mentally ill had committed a major crime because he had "a compulsive urge to be hanged." He said the defendant was found to be sane on grounds that his compulsion was not a delusion and his purpose showed that he was able to understand the nature and consequences of his act. Guttman described this as "tortuous and ambivalent" reasoning.

Two Men Discovered In Car Playing Cards

WORCESTER, Mass. (AP)—Police headquarters got a call Thursday that two men were acting mysteriously in a parked auto for four hours.

Police who went to the scene said everything was all right. The men were playing cribbage, a card game.

Permission Requested For Delegate's Leave

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore City Service Commission has urged the City Service Commission to reverse itself and grant a 90-day leave of absence to a municipal employee so he can attend the 1959 Legislature.

The commission last week denied a request for leave of absence made by Del. Murray Abramson (D-Baltimore), who is also assistant secretary of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

In a strongly worded resolution, the labor group said it felt that if the City Service Commission's action was followed by employers in other industries, "the average working man would not aspire to elected office."

The resolution said such a situation would result because workers would be in fear of losing their jobs or seniority, "thereby depriving Muscular Dystrophy campaign canisters are being collected. Fire Chief Virgil Parker, chairman for the Allegany-Garrett chapter, announced.

He said all of the 800 canisters distributed in the city will be in by the end of the week.

Another 150 canisters placed throughout Allegany and Garrett counties by volunteer fire companies will be collected by a committee headed by Alvin Rankin, Frostburg.

The house-to-house drive, held here for the first time, brought in $1,120.88, Chief Parker said. He said all Muscular Dystrophy marchers have turned in their kits and that this phase of the drive has been closed.

OUR COUNTRY

The union of hearts, the union of hands and the flag of our Union forever.—Morris.

Time To Protest

YOU SOMETIMES hear it said that total surprise attack by the Soviet Union is unlikely. The argument is that a crisis would have to be built up, during which phony justifications could be manufactured to take account of world opinion. There isn't any doubt that the Russians do concern themselves with what the world thinks. But after the latest United Nations condemnation of the 1956 Soviet suppression in Hungary, they might be forgiven for moderating their concern just a little. In that vote, 15 neutralist nations, mostly the Asian-African bloc, stood aside and declined to be counted.

ADMITTEDLY, the countries of the world would find it difficult to digest an unprovoked surprise assault upon the United States or any major Western power. But, short of that, certainly the brutal crushing of the Hungarian revolt was about as flagrant a thing as outsiders ever are likely to be asked to judge. Only the consciously or unconsciously blind would fail to see through the Russians' flimsy pretext that they were invited by a legal Hungarian government to put down an uprising. Outrages against humanity are matters of fact, not opinion. They are to be judged by moral standards, not set into a political context. Any nation, neutral, pro-Western or whatever, if not prevented by Russia itself, has a commanding responsibility before the world to speak out against breaches of human decency.

ONCE THE FACTS are established—and in this instance the U.N.'s own investigations support the horrendous charges against Russia—the course for all decent, moral men is clear. There can be no excuses for not recording protest. Not even the delicacy of one's political or geographic position with respect to the offender is really a fit alibi. The nations which do not speak out condemn themselves as less than moral. They chip away at the foundations of their own character. Whatever they thought to gain by abstaining cannot possibly offset the loss they suffer in the eyes of decent men the world over.

Hunch About Marilyn

IT IS REPORTED that a theater owner said he thought Marilyn Monroe might win an Oscar for her performance in her new movie. Miss Monroe's reply is supposed to have been: "I don't care about an award. I just want it to make codles of money." Such a remark might be taken at face value as a reflection of avarice. It probably reflects no such thing. Nor was the remark, chances are, a clumsy attempt to appear cynical. Our hunch about Miss Monroe's disclaimer is based on two things—on the fact that she already has made a lot of money as a popular star during past years, and on indications that since her marriage to the distinguished playwright Arthur Miller she has developed greatly as an actress. Our hunch is that an Oscar would mean more to Miss Monroe now than almost any amount of money. If her performance does turn out to be good enough to win her such an award, that would be a fitting climax for a Cinderella career. More important, it would be new evidence that qualities of solid worth can sometimes rise from the froth of a career based on entertaining trivia.

Enough Is Enough

WINTER IS JUST about to begin, by the calendar. But a good many folk outside the normally balmy zones already have seen more cold and snow than they'd welcome in a season. What's going on? We must suppose it's all to be blamed as usual on that vagrant high-altitude jetstream. When its high-velocity air currents dip southward, we get the stuff from the Arctic icebox. When the currents bend to the north, we are comforted by warm and often moist air from the Gulf of Mexico. Spoiled by an unusually long string of mild winters, we've gradually become accustomed in the last two or three years to occasional visits of icy air. But this 1958 performance is patently absurd. Blankets of snow and sub-zero temperatures in early December are about as cheering to most of us as the mother-in-law who arrives two weeks ahead of time and then announces she's lost her return trip ticket.

Let Down Seen In White House Social Code

WASHINGTON — By way of the social season, Washington is getting a foretaste of the relaxed attitude the President and Mrs. Eisenhower are taking toward their final two years in the White House.

Even more than last year when their party calendar was sharply abbreviated, the Eisenhower social obligations have been pared to a bare minimum. Only five dinners are being held, with extra guests invited for the musicales which follow.

No receptions, as such, are scheduled. Traditionally, receptions are the President's bow toward the great number of people who carry on the day-to-day business of the government and have little other opportunity to see and meet their Chief Executive and the First Lady.

A SIMILAR indifference to the time was displayed in the serving of dinner; it was after 10:30 for the Eisenhowers, gave the signal to leave the dining room. The musicale, to which additional guests were invited, then lasted until midnight, and was followed by a general reception. By that time, however, some of the guests were quietly slipping away.

It was noticeable also that the Eisenhowers had included on their restricted guest list an unusually large proportion of their personal friends and wealthy people who had entertained them at their vacation resorts.

Press coverage of the disaffection side of the White House, never very inclusive in the Eisenhower regime, has spared in the general restriction of its activities. Neither Mrs. Eisenhower nor her staff hold press conferences; the press associations and local newspapers are allowed to cover social events, but the many special reporters here must be represented by only one of their number, who is drawn by lot.

LESSENING of a President's contact with the people in his government will inevitably be reflected in their performance. It is difficult at best to give them a sense of participation when the Federal government has become so large and its activities so impersonal. Any social recognition is, of course, vastly important, too, to the wives of career men and civil servants.

Some long-time observers, therefore, believe the President would have been well advised to forget the dinners at which he sees people he encounters in other ways and give instead the reception which would amount to a "well done" signal to the lesser ranks.

Humphrey May Cause More Than Riffle

WASHINGTON (NEA) — What makes Hubert Humphrey tick?

In the space of speculation about the Minnesota senior senator's launching his 1960 presidential boom, emerging from an eight-hour, nonstop interview with Russia's Nikita Khrushchev, the man himself has not emerged clearly.

This stuff about his being a likely presidential candidate may be premature. Eleanor Roosevelt has endorsed him. But the Minnesota Democratic convention did that last May and it didn't cause a ripple. And, as ex-President Truman pointed out, there are a dozen other good prospects.

It will surprise no one if Senator Humphrey does ultimately announce himself as presidential candidate. For there is nothing backward about him.

HE IS ONE OF the few men, not the only one, who definitely ran for the vice presidential nomination.

That was in 1956. He got tangled up in a three-cornered race with Senators Jack Kennedy of Massachusetts and Estes Kefauver of Tennessee. Kefauver had soundly defeated Adlai Stevenson in the Minnesota presidential primary. So the state delegation backed "Kef."

Humphrey was left at the post disappointed. But, he says he hasn't regretted what he did.

Today Humphrey's only allowed goal is to run for re-election to the Senate in 1960—if the political lightning doesn't strike him at the Democratic national convention. He would like to have that determined in July before the August, 1960, closing date on filing for the Senate.

He has little opposition for the race. The Democrats swept up Minnesota last November in electing 42-year-old Eugene J. McCarthy as junior U.S. senator and re-electing 40-year-old Gov. Orville Freeman.

HUMPHREY stands out as the elder statesman of his party in Minnesota at the ripe old age of 48. He does not head a machine. He has no angel. His party organization has been built up by small contributors. In 1944 he played a leading role in uniting the Farm-Laborites and Democrats.

Senator Humphrey was one of the founders of Americans for Democratic Action. He is still one of its vice presidents. He doesn't always approve of everything ADA does. But he considers it a good influence.

There isn't any question about Hubert Humphrey being a New Dealer. This isn't a matter of political expediency. He came by his convictions naturally.

Many of his ideas were shaped by his father, a druggist and Democratic mayor of Durand, S.D., a predominantly Republican state. The family went through the dust bowl era and the depression—and lost everything.

IN THAT ERA when government programs and government aid did so much Hubert Humphrey became a flaming liberal and advocate of the common man. He still is.

In the 1948 Democratic national convention it was young Hubert Humphrey who made the speech on civil rights that caused the southern state delegations to walk out of the hall and split the party.

Men may return to dust, but not around the house.

Home gardens are shot, so nowadays cut flowers are not sold at the same kind of prices.

Senator Humphrey still sponsors a dozen or so civil rights bills every year. Some of the language of the Civil Rights Act of 1957 was taken from Humphrey's proposals made three years before.

All this makes Hubert Humphrey poison to many southerners and Democratic conservatives. Republican conservatives are always blasting him as a pet hate.

Privately, the Minnesota senator is counting on the defeat of Governor Harriman in New York and the drop in Michigan Gov. Mennen Williams' vote this year to make him the number one New Dealer and his party's choice in 1960—or later.

Glancing Sideways

NEW YORK — If you are looking for something pleasant to happen, chum, the place for you is take a walk in 44th Street between Eighth Avenue and Broadway. It happens all the time, but it may not happen to you. It depends on whom you know. The way I know an enchanting blonde named Temple Texas. If you don't know her, don't try to speak. You may end up two blocks away with a broken nose.

But I do know her and I was walking there the other late afternoon and Temple came along. I said, "Where are you bound for?" and she said, "I'm meeting two Chinese girls who are in 'The World of Suzie Wong,' and they are darlings. Want to join up?"

So we met Vie Von Thom, of Hunter College via Shanghai, Seattle and Hong Kong not necessarily in that order, and Mary Mon Toy, of UCLA, Honolulu and the Juilliard School of Music, plus Paris. And if you expect a fancy bit of chinoiserie all trucked up with lotus blossoms and lins of the Ninth Infirmary you'd best go rent a volume of Flower Buck.

THE MISSES Toy and Thom are remarkably attractive young women who do not sit down and whisper out trite phrases. They both, forthwith, revealed themselves to be thoughtful and at the moment both concerned and perplexed. This is causing them to save their money.

"It is a devilish thing for Oriental talents that there is a multiplicity of Oriental shows on Broadway this season," said Miss Toy. "Ours, and then 'Flower Drum' and the incoming 'Rashomon.' And when these are done we will sit around quietly starving to death until 11 years hence when someone else puts on a show requiring Orientals.

"Then what will happen? What happens on TV, right now? A big TV show is getting ready for after the first of the year. It will have an Oriental theme. Are they hiring Orientals? No, Occidentals and making them up to look Oriental. It will be as phony as a $33 diamond. Therefore, our only immediate job chance is the present circumstance of several Oriental shows.

"You remember that girl in 'Teahouse of the August Moon'? She played Miss Higga Jigga. Great notices. What is she doing now: she is working as a clerk in a business office. No jobs for her rich rich talent."

"Had they seen 'Flower Drum,' since its matinees coincided with theirs?

"Yes," said Miss Thom. "The Sunday before the Broadway open-

Sniff, Sniff; It's In The Air

WASHINGTON — A leading newspaper not long ago carried a full-page advertisement for a new kind of milk chocolate. This was printed in chocolate-colored ink.

The ink was treated with chocolate essence for its effect on the nostrils of the subscribers. This made the newspaper plant smell like a candy factory for a while, but that was pleasant and no body minded, although it did cause the pressmen to buy more chocolate bars than usual.

THE TROUBLE was that many a reader never got his paper that night, except in the form of shreds on his front porch. This issue turned out to be historic in advertising annals. It contained the first ad ever to appeal directly to dogs.

The city pups thought those papers were wrappers for candy and attacked them vigorously, trying to reach the sweets that obviously were inside. The result was littered lawns, unhappy subscribers, and disappointed dogs, and perhaps that's introduction enough for this small essay on smells.

The nose is a magnificent instrument. Odors usually make a lasting impression on the human mind.

I'M ONLY hopeful that the smells I've enjoyed lately won't put me in the same thwarted position as those pups, but I've been sniffing Christmas. Almost made me feel young again.

This started with my first whiff of a Christmas tree lot. There was a display with lamps hung on it and some of these got too close to the branches.

The odor of the scorching pine needles, an exceedingly spicy one, recalled suddenly the most exciting Christmas we ever had. That was when the tree caught fire. The damage was slight, but not quite. With my eyes shut I'd have known it was a pine.

I Smelled exactly like the first one I ever owned.

Fayette County Gaming Under Study

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—Federal authorities studied today testimony as a result of a quarrel in a probation hearing which linked Fayette County Dist. Atty. Joseph Kovach and County detective James Eadie with numbers racketeering in the county. Fred W. Lape, Uniontown, and Joseph Kurek Jr., Luxembourg Twp., made the accusations in federal court Thursday during a hearing in which Albert Pauline, Bentleyville gambler, was ordered to prison for 18 months after his probation was revoked.

Kovach later denied the charges which he termed politically inspired and Eadie, through an attorney, branded the accusations "absurd and ridiculous."

Lape testified that Kovach and Eadie pressured him to continue booking numbers with Pauline. Kurek told the court Eadie "How can these witnesses say they are trying to get your business when you're not even in it?" Teitelbaum asked. Pauline's answer was inaudible.

After hearing the testimony of the two rackets figures, Federal Judge Herbert P. Sorg sentenced Pauline to the 18-month term. Pauline had been placed on probation last April after pleading no defense to failure to pay the federal 10 per cent gambling tax.

Answering charges by U.S. Atty. Hubert I. Teitelbaum that he had violated probation by continuing in the numbers racket, Pauline testified that he had been out of the lottery since 1957. He said he earned a living through a small pinball operation.

However, he said Lape and Kurek testified against him because they wanted to take over the Fayette County Numbers racket.

Eadie said Lape and Kurek testified against him because they wanted to take over the Fayette County Numbers racket.

Kurek told the court Eadie "How can these witnesses say they are trying to get your business when you're not even in it?" Teitelbaum asked. Pauline's answer was inaudible.

Lape, who named both the district attorney and detective in his testimony, said he had been "banking" his numbers bets with Pauline and Stanley Transelli, but switched to what he termed a "Brownsville outfit" because of reduced odds.

Lape said Eadie approached him and said he would "have to do business with Bentleyville." He quoted the detective as saying, "My boss sent me over here to see you and see what I could do."

When he visited the district attorney, Lape said, he was ordered to take his lottery business back to Pauline. Lape said he then went to Teitelbaum.

Kurek testified Eadie had ordered him to close up his business following an argument with Pauline about a $100 bill for his numbers profit.

Attorney Louis Glascio, representing Pauline, asked the court to delay its decision. But Judge Sorg said, "The testimony will never be more clear than it is now."

Judge Sorg granted Pauline permission to begin serving his sentence after the holidays. He was freed on bond until 11 a.m. Jan. 2, when he must surrender for confinement.

Kovach said he knew Lape and Kurek were "friends of my political enemies." He said he was interested in curbing whatever rackets there are in Fayette County and had offered Teitelbaum "all the service and facts gathered by my office."

Kovach said he and Eadie have been subpoenaed to appear before a federal grand jury which will resume its investigation of Western Pennsylvania rackets in February. Eadie and another Fayette County detective, Charles Kutchman, appeared before the October panel.

County Seeks Larger Share Gasoline Tax

Attorney Instructed To Prepare Action Supporting Move

The Allegany County Board of Commissioners today instructed Leslie J. Clark, attorney to the board, to draw up a resolution in which it would support a proposal under which the various counties would receive a greater percentage of the state gasoline taxes.

This action followed a report by Harry Skelly, roads supervisor, on a meeting he attended Wednesday at Towson of the County Engineers Association of Maryland when allocation of the gasoline tax was the main topic. Skelly said the gasoline tax is apportioned with the State Roads Commission getting 50 per cent; Baltimore City, 30 per cent and the counties, 20 per cent of the gasoline tax monies.

Skelly explained that it costs the county $762.97 to maintain one mile of roadway while only $800 per mile is received in state gasoline tax money. This leaves a limited amount for new construction.

A committee of the engineers' group headed by John Wolfe, an assistant roads engineer for Baltimore County, will meet December 29 at Frederick. This group is checking information on costs and gasoline tax receipts in the counties. Skelly is a member of the committee.

The county commissioners were informed by Skelly that the engineers' group will ask the support of every county board in the state to obtain legislation under which the counties would receive a higher percentage of the gasoline tax revenue.

Second National Reveals Dividend

The Board of Directors of The Second National Bank announced today it has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of $1 a share on capital stock of the bank.

This dividend will be paid January 15 to stockholders of record at the close of business December 31. The distribution, 162nd in the history of the bank, continues the regular annual declaration of $2 a share that has been paid for many years.

Last night, the bank held its Christmas party at Cumberland Country Club. Directors, officers and employees with their wives and husbands attended.

Feature of the entertainment was a mock "directors" meeting which was written, produced, and staged by members of the bank's staff. A musical program was presented by Mrs. Robertine Boyle Murray, Mrs. Marion Hamilton Francis and Billy Boyer with Kenneth Mahaney of the bank acting as master of ceremonies.

Two Appointed To County Jobs

Two promotional appointments were made today by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners.

Bertha May Coleman, of Midlothian, was named assistant cook at the County Infirmary and Delmer Yonker, Little Orleans, was named an equipment operator. Both jobs are under Civil Service and the two employees took the promotional examination recently.

The Monarch Printing Company was awarded a contract to supply letterheads for the Assessment Department for $32.50 while the Commercial Press Company will supply personal property schedules of two types at $45.45 for one and $85 for the other. These were the low bids on both printing jobs.

Children's Party Planned Tomorrow

A Christmas party for needy children will be held at the Purple Heart Center, Green Street, tomorrow from 10 a.m. to noon under the sponsorship of Mountain Chapter of the Military Order of the Purple Heart.

New officers of the Bedford Road Volunteer Fire Company and its Auxiliary will be installed at a joint ceremony at 5 p.m. Sunday, January 4, at the Fire Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell Zimmerman will officiate at the installations, after which the annual supper of the company will be served. Reservations can be made by contacting Mrs. Willys Wilson at PA 4-1096, Mrs. David E. Wilson at PA 4-1104 or Mrs. Nancy Gwenden by December 28. The Auxiliary of the Bowman's Addition Fire Company will prepare and serve the supper. A music program will be presented during the meal.

Bid Offered For Building Near Romney

Chapel And Lodge To Be ERECTED At Episcopal Church Site

Ralph Saville Jr., Romney contractor, has submitted the low bid for the construction of two buildings at the Peterkin Conference Center near Romney.

William A. Powers, Romney, vice chairman of the center's committee, said today a chapel and a lodge will be built at a cost of $36,000.

Five other contractors submitted bids for the work at the property owned by the Episcopal Diocese of West Virginia and used as a meeting center during the summer months.

Plan Full Operation

Powers said an improvement and building program has been underway for some time to make the center into a year-around operation.

The latest contract calls for the construction of a chapel of traditional architecture. The 32-foot 90-foot frame structure will have an exterior of vertical redwood siding.

The chapel will be built in an H-shape. The center room will be assembly and recreational purposes and the four wings off it will be sleeping units.

Each unit will have quarters for six persons. Bath and toilet facilities will also be provided in each of the four wings.

More Lodges Planned

The chapel will have an oil heating system, while the lodge will have a large fireplace and a ducting system off it into the four sleeping units.

Powers said the center's committee plans to construct at least two more lodges.

Chandeliers Under Repair

Workmen were busy today making repairs to the three chandeliers in the main court room at the Court House which were found to be faulty after a fourth chandelier crashed to the floor from the ceiling yesterday.

One of the workmen said the bolts which held the main section of the chandeliers had threads which were stripped. He attributed this to the heat the 1,000 watt bulbs generated.

The chandelier which fell narrowly missed Robert B. Thomas, court stenographer, as he was taking testimony in a case. Sidney Stover Sr., court bailiff, was also uninjured as the big lamp crashed to the floor from 25 feet above.

The chandeliers weigh 40 to 50 pounds each. The big bulb smashed into fragments as it hit the floor. Chief Judge Morgan C. Harris adjourned court after the accident as the decorum of the court room had also been shattered.

The youths were spotted by Officer Royce Clayton who called Detective Kenneth Morrissey to assist in apprehending the boys.

Instructors Informed On Salary Plans

Other Groups Also Hear Talks Regarding Next Year's Program

Effective in September 1959, a new state minimum salary scale for public school teachers can be recommended by the State Teachers Association and Maryland Congress of Parents and Teachers.

The increase recommended represents about $400 a year, Milton C. Raver, MSTA executive secretary, said last night, during a meeting arranged by the Allegany County Teachers Association at All-Girl Shrine Country Club.

Raver presented the legislative program for public education to be presented to the General Assembly next month in an address before members of the Allegany County delegation. Board of County Commissioners, representatives of the Board of Education, legislative committee of local teachers, other committee chairman and delegates from Allegany County PTA Council.

Costs $12,803,000

Raver outlined the program briefly and said it will cost an additional $12,803,000 or about $4.27 per capita to help provide quality education for our children.

This is represented by a minimum state salary scale of $4,000 to $6,000 for teachers holding a Bachelor's degree; $3,800 to $5,800 for teachers holding first grade or higher certificates and $3,400 to $5,400 for non-degree emergency certified teachers.

This salary increase will cost an estimated $12,200,000.

MSTA and the PTA, he said, also recommend the use of additional state aid to reduce class size so that students can get more individual attention from teachers.

Continued expansion of the facilities at the State Teachers Colleges as recommended by the State Board of Education is also a part of the program and estimated additional annual cost is $417,000.

It is also proposed that salary scales at state teachers colleges be advanced on a comparable level to those in effect at other state institutions of higher learning. This will cost an additional $186,000.

It is increasingly important, Raver noted, that Maryland keep its teaching salaries in line with other states, since there is a nation-wide shortage of teachers and recruitment becomes more difficult and competitive each year. He observed that Maryland will need 4,500 new teachers next year. Of this number, 3,100 will be replacements for those who retire, enter other fields or move to other areas. About 1,400 will be needed to man new classrooms in the state, he said.

More Lodges Planned

The chapel will have an oil heating system, while the lodge will have a large fireplace and a ducting system off it into the four sleeping units.

Each unit will have quarters for six persons. Bath and toilet facilities will also be provided in each of the four wings.

To meet the teacher shortage, an average of 10 per cent of high school graduates of the state must enter the profession. While Maryland annually needs 4,300 professional teachers to continue quality education, only 1,230 prospective teachers will be graduated in June, 1959. Raver emphasized.

Attributing this shortage to low salaries, he said: Maryland has dropped from fourth place in 1948 salaries to 10th for 1957-58.

Maryland, he said, ranks 11th among states in per capita income. Yet, the state ranks 40th in current expenditures for public education from state and local tax sources.

Maryland ranks 25th in estimated per cent of public school revenue receipts from state sources, and 18th in estimated expenditures per pupil.

Thus, he declared, Maryland needs to take forward steps to provide "quality education for our children," and such steps mean greater costs.

He said the MSTA and PTA had not offered any suggestions or solutions to the legislators for raising additional funds, but believed that under the whole program, it will not be necessary to increase local taxes to finance the need for additional school funds.

There was considerable discussion by those present and members of the legislature asked Raver several pertinent questions pertaining to the proposal.

Also present were Miss Jean R. Moser, Hagerstown, president of the MSTA, and James Llewellyn Timonium, vice president of the Maryland Congress PTA. Miss Mary E. Murray, ACTA president, introduced the guests and presented the speakers. Dr. W. Ardell Gaines offered the invocation and benediction.

Large Budget Approved For Youth Parley

WASHINGTON (AP) — Plans of the 1950 White House Conference on Children and Youth voted a million-dollar budget for the event yesterday.

The conference, national committee set the figure after deciding on a theme for the meeting: "To promote opportunity for children and youth to realize their full potential for creative life and freedom and dignity."

Some difficulties over wording of the objectives of the March 27 April 2 sessions developed among the 92 committee members because of the school integration question, but these were of a technical nature and no major conflicts ensued.

The conference will be held at the University of Maryland, in nearby College Park, Md.

Similar meetings have been held every 10 years since they were inaugurated by President Theodore Roosevelt. Their object is to clarify public opinion on basic educational policies, and private organizations chip in funds along with government appropriations.

Following the dinner and business session, the group was entertained with a program of Christmas music. Mrs. Arlyn Arnold, accompanied by Miss Carolyn Collins at the piano, sang several vocal selections. Misses Ann Chester and Carolyn Collins rendered several vocal duets, accompanied by Mrs. Arnold at the piano.

Sewer Line Pay Ordered

WESTERNPORT — A check for $3,075 was signed Wednesday night by the Mayor and Commissioners of Westernport in payment to the West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company for 605 feet of eight-inch new sewer pipe laid recently by the company in the Green's Addition area.

The sewer was laid in the corporate limits of the town in order to connect the company's new sewer in the Horse Rock section with the town's sewer system.

Original cost of laying the sewer was estimated at $3,525 and this was the purchase price agreed upon. Deducted from this amount was $450, representing the sewer tapping fee for 23 houses in the Horse Rock area. Sewage disposal charges will be collected monthly on the basis of the amount of town water purchased for the area.

Considerable time during the meeting was used in discussing policy of paying town employees for overtime work. Regular employees should be paid time and a half for extra work when they are called out after a regular day's work, council agreed. Payment of time and a half for extra workers who are called out after regular working hours but have not worked any time during the day, was not approved by council.

Water Commissioner Alvin Pence was authorized to go ahead with the installation of water meters in the homes in the 600 block of Maryland Avenue.

The clerk's office will be closed for the Christmas holiday at noon Wednesday.

U.S. Captures 2-0 Lead Over Italy In Tennis

PERTH, Australia (AP) — A nervous Alex Olmedo, playing in his first Davis Cup match, and poised Ham Richardson sent the United States off to a 2-0 lead over Italy today in the interzone tennis final.

George, who has been playing four years as a regular for the Delmolders, helped give the Valley backers and coach Johnny Meyers their Yuletide present in the form of a pair of pressure-packed free throws that brought the Knights from behind for a 44-42 victory over Piedmont's hoopsters before a near full house at Delmont.

Lauder, who is almost a dead shot from the 15-foot mark, sent his pair of penalty-pitched through the nets in the closing seconds of the low-scoring clash to account for the two-point margin. It clinched a come-from-behind surge by the Delmolders who have closed action for the year undefeated in five games and with a sweep of the series with the Lions.

Winner Comes Through

It wasn't Big George alone, though, in the brilliant team effort put forth by the Black Knights. The rebounding work and timely scoring of center Hank Winner, and guard Jim Chappell were instrumental in containing the hustling Piedmonters who were held to their lowest scoring output of the season.

On three occasions the game was deadlocked although Piedmont managed to hold the upper hand for most of the game. Val, until the final two minutes, had been on top only three times in the first two quarters, the highest edge being 13-10 just before the end of the opening heat.

Piedmont, loser by 49-46 to the Knights on the Lions' court in their only other defeat for six games, couldn't get its vaunted fast-break working against the stubborn Valley zone defense. But, the Lions, sparked by the rebounding work of center Wayne Russell, the dazzling shooting of forward Joe "Goose" Taylor and guard John Richards and a stout court setup of their own kept the half-way point of the period.

The Knights, on a desperation shot by Bill Garitz from just beyond the half-court mark, moved within five points, 39-34, of Piedmont as the third period ended. Coach Meyers put his club into an all-court press, to start the final eight minutes and it paid off handsomely with Winner, Lauder and Garitz hooping goals and pulling their club within a point of a tie, 41-40, as only four minutes remained.

The Black Knights, now boasting a 5-0 mark which they won't have to put up to a test until meeting the Alumni January 2, were outscored from the field, on goals to 18, but connected on eight free throws in 17 tries while the Lions could send but four of their efforts through the nets. Efficiency at the foul line has been a Valley trademark although the Knights failed to connect for at least a .500 mark with last night's performance.

From the outset, the fans knew they were in for a slow, deliberate evening of basketball as both clubs, by design, went into zone defenses. The quints had their share of shots at the netted target, but most of them were from outside with the Knights hitting nine of 15 attempts.

The Lions broke the scoring ice early when Taylor, who led the Piedmonters in scoring with 15 markers, connected on a jump shot from the side. Forward Bobby Brown made it 2-2 for Valley but Richards' set from outside the circle shoved Piedmont in front, 4-2.

Piedmont kept the edge until 11-12 remained in the first heat with Winner, who hit on four straight goals in the opening half, knotting the count at 10-10 on his first fielder. Hank fouled on his play, put Valley on top, 11-10, with a penalty pitch. His bucket from the side gave Valley its biggest edge of the night, 13-10, but Richards quickly cut that to 13-12 just at the end of the period.

The Lions, held to only six goals and 15 points in the last two quarters, appeared as though they might break the game open when the second period began.

"Goose" tallied nine of Piedmont's 15 counters in the last two heats and wound up with seven goals for 16 attempts while adding one free throw for three tries. Richards, banging away from near the foul circle, had a dozen points, on five twin-pointers and two charity tosses.

Valley Tames Lions Second Time, 44-42

By JIM DAY

Times Scholastic Sports Editor

Big George Lauder of the Valley High cagers wouldn't pass for Santa Claus, but in the minds of the Black Knight rooters George will do until the real St. Nick makes his yearly visit next Thursday.

George, who has been playing four years as a regular for the Delmolders, helped give the Valley backers and coach Johnny Meyers their Yuletide present in the form of a pair of pressure-packed free throws that brought the Knights from behind for a 44-42 victory over Piedmont's hoopsters before a near full house at Delmont.

Lauder, who is almost a dead shot from the 15-foot mark, sent his pair of penalty-pitched through the nets in the closing seconds of the low-scoring clash to account for the two-point margin. It clinched a come-from-behind surge by the Delmolders who have closed action for the year undefeated in five games and with a sweep of the series with the Lions.

but Piedmont in front, 24-23, with less than a minute before intermission. Dan T. Twyman built the margin to four points with a twin-pointer and penalty pitch just before the half.

Valley was held scoreless until the 4:17 mark of the third chapter as Piedmont boosted its edge to 21-20. Twyman's free throw cracked the scoring drought but the pesky Lions, on successive buckets by Taylor, were to enjoy their biggest lead at 33-24 near the half-way point of the period.

The Knights, on a desperation shot by Bill Garitz from just beyond the half-court mark, moved within five points, 39-34, of Piedmont as the third period ended.

Coach Meyers put his club into an all-court press, to start the final eight minutes and it paid off handsomely with Winner, Lauder and Garitz hooping goals and pulling their club within a point of a tie, 41-40, as only four minutes remained.

The Black Knights, now boasting a 5-0 mark which they won't have to put up to a test until meeting the Alumni January 2, were outscored from the field, on goals to 18, but connected on eight free throws in 17 tries while the Lions could send but four of their efforts through the nets. Efficiency at the foul line has been a Valley trademark although the Knights failed to connect for at least a .500 mark with last night's performance.

From the outset, the fans knew they were in for a slow, deliberate evening of basketball as both clubs, by design, went into zone defenses. The quints had their share of shots at the netted target, but most of them were from outside with the Knights hitting nine of 15 attempts.

The Lions broke the scoring ice early when Taylor, who led the Piedmonters in scoring with 15 markers, connected on a jump shot from the side. Forward Bobby Brown made it 2-2 for Valley but Richards' set from outside the circle shoved Piedmont in front, 4-2.

Sluggers Led By Colavito

CHICAGO (AP) — Rocky Colavito, Cleveland's hard-hitting outfielder, led the American League last season in slugging with a .584 average.

Colavito finished far ahead of New York's Mickey Mantle, Kansas City's Bob Cerv and the 1957 champion Ted Williams of Boston. Mantle and Cerv climaxed the season with identical .392 averages and Williams, who won with a mark of .731 last year, finished fourth with a .584.

Colavito had 303 total bases in 489 times at bat, his 41 homers were second only to Mantle's 42. He hit 26 doubles, 3 triples and drove in 113 runs, a total exceeded only by Jackie Jensen's 122 for Boston.

Mantle drew the most bases on balls, 129. In 1957 he led the league with 147. Of Mickey's 129 passes, 13 were intentional.

The champion Yankees led the league in team slugging with a .416 average. Cleveland was second with .403 followed by Boston with .400.

'Hasty Heart' Pleases TV Critic

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — "The Hasty Heart," a 30-minute entry on CBS-TV Thursday night, was a creditable addition to the "du Pont Show of the Month" catalogue. If I were to carp at all—and I always do—it would be to note that the John Patrel comedy-drama is not a very challenging alone" came off as believably as it did. In less skillful hands, it could have been quite awkward and Hollywood and is almost failure-proof as basic black pearls. Redraping it for TV as a spectacular seems, somehow, excessively cautious.

However, on TV the viewer has to be grateful for prime time crumbs. And a fine, tasty crumb, in fact, this was.

Don Murray in the role of the doomed Scottish soldier turned in a carefully plotted performance that built block upon block. It's Murray's credit that the climactic scene in which he turns with "I don't...want to die" was working full blast Thursday night and she graced her role with grace. Cooper, presented with a part that teetered precariously on the edge of being two-dimensionally give it wholeness and bounce.

One further credit: To director Tom Donovan, one scene in particular stands out in my mind as showing a strong directorial hand—the one in which Murray is told he is about to die. It was underplayed, delivered in pastel tones by the actors. The camera did all the emotional work, moving in for big, searching closeups. It came at a time when the proceedings needed a little subtle juicing and was a shrewd use of the medium.

Short Shout: ABC-TV's "Leave It To Beaver" turned in another warm and four-square job Thursday night. The show is certainly the most underrated of all half-hour films. Ziva Rodman, the heroine in NBC-TV's "Behind Closed Doors" Thursday night, was an admirable construction, but I can't say as much for the play.

The Channel Swin: Phil Silvers pre-empted his own CBS-TV Friday show on Jan. 23 for a one-hour special. CBS-TV's "Playhouse 90" will tick off its 100th telecast Feb. 12 with "The Second Man," a courtroom piece. CBS-TV's "Your Hit Parade" will salute the 1950's on its Jan. 9 show, with Skinnymen, Pinky Tomlin and Wee Bonnie Baker.

ABC-TV's Peter Lind Hayes is planning an all-Richard Rodgers show for Jan. 6. Leonard Bernstein, about to take off on a ski-breaker in Sun Valley, plans to devote his Jan. 25 CBS-TV special to jazz.

Certificates Mailed For Surplus Foodstuff

Persons whose applications for surplus food have been approved will receive a certificate in the mail. Grant Wiebel, supervisor of the doable foods program for the Allegany County Board of Commissioners, said the certificates were placed in the mails yesterday.

Each certificate carries the date on which the person should apply at the old Royale Dairy building at the corner of Arch and Second streets.

The distribution of the food will be made the first three days of next week from 8 a.m. until 4 p.m. All residents in the county must come to this point to receive their food since there isn't enough time to set up distribution points throughout the county before Christmas, according to Mr. Wiebel.

Wiebel said he still needs volunteers to help bag the 40,000 pounds of rice which was made available by the Department of Agriculture. About 10,000 pounds of rice has been put into two-pound bags, but at least 12,000 pounds will be needed next week.

The bagging operation is being held in the basement of the County Building on Union Street and volunteers may either report there or contact Wiebel on the second floor of the same building.

Persons who have placed an application for food and who do not receive a certificate of approval by Monday or Tuesday should contact the agency where they applied for application.

Foodstuffs which will be distributed next week include cheese, butter, milk, corn meal and rice.

Woman Freed; Aided In Dope Arrests

BALTIMORE (AP) — A 32-year-old woman who pleaded guilty to a third narcotics offense was given a suspended sentence and placed on probation instead of a jail sentence yesterday because of her help in arresting other dope addicts.

Federal agents told Judge Andrew Sodaro that Mrs. Elizabeth Etta Williams, 32, performed a "marvelous task" in 18 months undercover work. Her efforts resulted in conviction of 12 dope figures in Baltimore, Washington and New York, the agents testified.

Mrs. Williams, who used a number of aliases, could have drawn 10 to 20 years in prison as a third offender of narcotics laws.

Judge Sodaro put her on probation on condition of good behavior and with the understanding she would leave Maryland. The woman was identified as native of Frederick County.

An agent told the court she is no longer an addict and has married a responsible business man since her arrest in March 3, 1957.

She had been taken off a Washington-New York train by police who were told she was carrying heroin.

Price Controversy Idles Crab Fleet

HAMPTON, Va. (AP) — One-third of the nation's crab production normally is supplied by the lower Chesapeake Bay crabbing fleet, virtually idled by a price controversy.

Only a dozen boats, about 20 per cent of the area's crabbing fleet, continued to operate yesterday.

There has been a lull by independent operators for four straight days.

The Chesapeake Bay fishermen take an average of 40 million pounds of live crabs, worth from $2 to $3 million dollars each year.

This represents nearly one third of U. S. and Alaskan crab production.

Independent crab boat operators in lower Chesapeake Bay decided Monday not to work as long as packinghouse prices for live crabs remained at their current low level. More than 70 per cent of the crab meat picked and packaged in the area is shipped to wholesalers and direct to hotels and restaurants along the East Coast.

Smaller quantities are shipped to the Midwest.

Packinghouse owned boats are permitted to take only 30 barrels a day each. At the most, they can produce a total yield of 4,500 to 5,500 pounds of crab meat daily compared to the daily average of only 85 miles apart.

13,000-14,000 pounds reported for the area by federal officials last week.

A State unemployment compensation commission official estimated about 90 per cent of the packinghouse employees are idled by the tieup.
